NAACP MEDIA RELEASE APRIL MONTHLY MEETING

Speaker Channa Lloyd, Esq.

(ORLANDO, FLORIDA) --- The Orange County Branch NAACP will hold the April Monthly Meeting of the Branch on Monday, April 22, 2019 at Mt. Sinai Missionary Baptist Church, 5200 W. South Street, Orlando, Florida 32817, at 7:00 PM. In addition to order of business and information at the meeting, Channa Lloyd, The Census Bureau Florida Partnership Specialist will be the speaker. Channa, who is the Florida Partnership Specialist previously served as a Partnership Specialist for South Florida in 2010. As a partnership Specialist, she is responsible for working with Counties, Cities, Municipalities and Community Organizations to create Complete Count Communities and public initiatives that promote awareness of the 2020 Census. These initiatives are designed to educate constituents through workshops, education seminars, and press events that articulate and promote the importance of the 2020 Census. Beyond her service with the Decennial Census, she is committed to defending individuals accused and representing clients that have been severely injured. Ms. Lloyd earned a bachelor's degree from Florida International University and her Juris Doctorate from Barry University, Dwayne O. Andres School of Law. She will be presenting exciting updated Census information that will be of benefit to all attendees.
